Numb. 7165.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 27. to Tuesday January 30. 1732.

Hague, February 6, N. S.

THE States of the Province of Holland met to Day, and have under Consideration the Prince of Nassau Orange's Demand of having the Effects of the late King William that fall to his Share delivered to him: Which Affair, it is believed, they will bring to a Conclusion before they break up.

Dublin, January 22.

Saturday last being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garrison which were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green. At Noon the Lords Justices met at the Castle, and received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction upon this Occasion; and afterwards made a Tour upon the Strand, attended by the Battle-Axe-Guards and a Squadron of Dragoons. And at Night there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies.

Whitehall, January 5, 1732-33.

Whereas the Chambers of Capt. John Houghton, No 14, in Holbourn Court in Gray's Inn, were, on or about the 31st of December last, robbed of a great Quantity of Linnen and other Goods to a considerable Value, and a Scrutore and Book Case broke open and several Books of Accompts and Papers carried away; His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Criminals who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any of them be apprehended and convicted thereof. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, Capt. John Houghton, of Holbourn Court in Gray's Inn, does hereby promise, that whoever shall discover the Person or Persons concerned in the said Robberies, or either of them, so as he or they may be convicted thereof, shall, upon such Conviction, receive from him as a Reward the Sum of Fifty Guineas. J. Houghton.

Navy-Office, January 29, 1732.

These are to give Notice, That on Monday the 12th of next Month, will be paid at the Pay-Office in Broad-Street, the Two Months Pay in Six, due to His Majesty's Ships under-mentioned, to the Times against their Names expresst, to the Seamens lawful Attornies, in pursuance of An Act of Parliament on that Behalf, viz.

Seaford, August 6, 1732.
